

david trow

wssc alumni

regional head of markets advisory at mufg bank

“It’s ok to
change your mind”

David left Wickersley Sixth Form in 2007. He now works as a Regional Head of Markets Advisory for MUFG Bank, based in Hong Kong.

He covers compliance advice to sales and trading staff (approx 400) in China, Hong Kong, Singapore, India, Australia, New Zealand, Indonesia, Malaysia, Vietnam, Taiwan, South Korea, Philippines and Myanmar.

words of wisdom

It’s ok to change your mind; at wickersley i intended to be a solicitor, then at university a doctor, then virologist before moving into a career in consulting and currently bank compliance.

katie wright

translator in the film and tv industry

"don't be afraid to ask for help"

mariya ghafoor

medicine at barts and the london school of medicine and dentistry

“never stop trying”

Mariya is a former Wickersley School and Wickersley Sixth Form student, who left in 2015.

After her A Levels, she started her degree in Medicine at Barts and the London School of Medicine - a centre of excellence for both cardiac and cancer care.

She graduated in 2021 and is now working as a Junior Doctor in She eld.

Mariya also has an intercalated degree in Nutrition from King's College London.